On the eve of the International Day of Women in Diplomacy on 24 June, we would like to tell you a little more about the remarkable Ukrainian women who helped shape and lead Ukraine's diplomatic service a century ago. This date serves as a powerful reminder of their contributions — especially now, as Ukraine continues to defend its sovereignty against Russia's full-scale aggression. Then, as now, women in diplomacy stood firm in the face of Russian hostility and harnessed the power of public diplomacy to rally international support for Ukraine.
